SHRI RAM JETHMALANI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have received the Second Administrative Reforms Commission Report;

(b) if so, the salient recommendations of the Commission;

(c) whether Government have taken any decision with regard to the implementation of these recommendations; and

(d) if so, the facts in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) and (b) The Second Administrative Reforms Commission (ARC) has so far submitted the following four reports:—

(1) Right to Information: Master Key to Good Governance (June, 2006). The main recommendations in this report relate to (i) Repeal of the Official Secrets Act, 1923 in the current form and including necessary provisions in the National Security Act and (ii) Steps for effective implementation of the Right to Information Act.

(2) Unlocking Human Capital: Entitlements and Governance—a case study (July, 2006). This Report deals with the implementation of the National Rural Employment Guarantee Act.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi

(3) Crisis Management: From Despair to Hope (October, 2006). This Report makes recommendations about effectively meeting crisis situations through systematic preparedness, early warning, quick response and recovery to protect people and structures from natural and manmade disasters and to increase the effectiveness of crisis response and recovery.

(4) Ethics in Governance (February, 2007). In this Report the Commission has made recommendations relating to various legal, institutional and procedural measures covering the legislature, judiciary and the executive with the focus on tackling corruption.

All the above four Reports have been put on the website of the Commission at http://arc.gov.in.

(c) and (d) All the four Reports have been sent to the concerned Ministries/Departments in accordance with the subjects allotted to them in the Allocation of the Business Rules, for taking necessary action.
